17/7/2015 · Harry By The Sea has been a favourite book in our family since Easton was a baby. In fact I was surprised to see that I've never properly mentioned it before (apart from a round-up of my boys' favourite books here).. Marlow has recently discovered it, and she too is loving the funny story about Harry the dog at the beach and how he gets himself covered in seaweed and disguised as a sea ...

Harry by the Sea Book Review - Common Sense Media

The text softens Harry's plight by giving the panic to the people, who think Harry is a scary sea monster, and by reassurances that his family has been searching for him, too. Humorous touches -- both textual and visual -- abound, such as the expressions and gestures of illustrator Margaret Bloy Graham's bathers and Harry's mistaking the hot-dog man's cry of "Hurry!"
