Historical reliability of the Gospels - Wikipedia

From oral traditions to written gospels. In the immediate aftermath of Jesus' death his followers expected him to return at any moment, certainly within their own lifetimes, and in consequence there was little motivation to write anything down for future generations; but as eyewitnesses began to die, and as the missionary needs of the church grew, there was an increasing demand ...

Like the rest of the New Testament, the four gospels were written in Greek. The Gospel of Mark probably dates from c. AD 66–70, Matthew and Luke around AD 85–90, and John AD 90–110. Despite the traditional ascriptions, all four are anonymous and most scholars agree that none were written by eyewitnesses. A few conservative scholars defend the traditional ascriptions or ...

23/12/2021 · Eyewitness Testimony Sometimes skeptics claim that the Gospels were written down long after the events, in a different time and place. But the research of scholars such as Richard Bauckham and Peter J. Williams shows that there is overwhelming evidence that the Gospels were the written testimony of eyewitnesses and those who knew the time, place and ...

10/7/2021 · The Gospels, the first four books of the New Testament, tell the story of the life of Jesus. Yet only one—the Gospel of John—claims to be an eyewitness account, the testimony of the unnamed “disciple whom Jesus loved.” (“This is the disciple who is testifying to these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true” [John 21:24]).

20/11/2019 · The majority of ALL New Testament scholars absolutely do NOT believe that eyewitnesses wrote the Gospels. Even conservative scholar Richard Bauckham admits this in his book, “Jesus and the Eyewitnesses”. He believes that this majority opinion is wrong, but he does not try to hide the fact that this majority scholarly opinion exists.
