Jesus and the Kingdom of God: What You Need to Know - De ...

We have seen that Jesus proclaimed the kingdom of God as something both present and future. Like the mustard seed, the kingdom is small in the moment, yet will be great in the future. The more we study Jesus' ministry without chopping it into disconnected bits, the more we realize that he proclaimed the reign of God as something that was "already and not yet" present.

Jerusalem — Watchtower ONLINE LIBRARY

Jesus had called Jerusalem “the killer of the prophets and stoner of those sent forth to her.” (Mt 23:37; compare vs 34-36.) Though many of her citizens showed faith in God’s Son, the city as a whole continued to follow the pattern of the past. For this, ‘her house was abandoned to her.’

Matthew 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the ...

Verse 37. - O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Pathetic iteration! As he approached the city on another occasion Christ had used the same words (Luke 13:34, 35); he repeats them now as he takes his final farewell He speaks with Divine tenderness, yet with poignant sorrow, knowing that this last appeal will be in vain. It has been remarked that, whereas St. Matthew elsewhere names the capital city, the ...
