Macbeth: Fate vs. Free Will - Literature Essay Samples

26/8/2020 · Macbeth always had that little piece of ambition inside of him, the one in which he dreamt of being king and Thane of Cawdor, because back in the Elizabethan times titles were important! I think that Macbeth used the prophecy to take the guilt away from the ambition he was feeling. He used it to guide himself, but no part of it had to do with fate!

To Thine Own Self Be True - Meaning, Origin, and Usage

The Elizabethan era audience of Shakespeare was well aware of the meaning of his words, though in modern age, words like "Self" and "True" have different. In fact, this phrase implies multiplicity of meanings. The first meaning is that someone can better judge himself if he has done what he should or could have done.
